

CRN is recognising the top channel chiefs in Australia!

Now in its third year, the CRN Channel Chiefs our annual list of the Australian channel chiefs and the partner-focused business leaders who drive the local partner strategies for the world's leading technology vendors.

Coverage will be published online and in the printed magazine in October, where it will be read by thousands of channel partners, vendors and distributors across the country!

This submission form should take around 10 minutes to complete. It is free to submit your details to the '2018 CRN Channel Chiefs'.

You can download the full list of questions here, though you will need to come back to this site to complete the submission.

Submission criteria

- Please submit details for the most senior executive leading your company's Australian channel / partner strategy.
- The Channel Chiefs is aimed at executives that focus primarily on channel/partner sales and strategy. We may decline submissions by country managers, sales directors or other senior executives with broader remits that aren't solely channel-focused. If your job title is not specifically channel/partner-centric, please use this submission to explain why you should still be included.
- The deadline for submission is Friday 7 September.
- Only one executive per company will be covered in the editorial.
- There are sponsorship packages available for premium, expanded coverage of your team.
- To be eligible, the channel chief must have direct responsibility for the Australian market. Australia executives will be given priority over APAC executives.
- There is a limit to the number of channel chiefs we can include, so not all submissions will be published.
- CRN reserves the right to decide who appears in the final published list, and to edit any content provided to fit our format. Not all entries will be published.
